

Marta Ciepla – Member of the Supervisory Board

Ms. Marta Ciepla is a graduate of the University of Natural Science in Wrocław, she also has a degree in post-graduate studies in human resources management. She has been involved with the IT sector for over a decade, in recruitment and IT staff selection processes. An HR manager responsible for team development of the various company departments.

Ms. Marta Ciepla is not engaging in activities, outside of the Issuer's business which could have a material impact on the Issuer or be in competition with it. She is not a shareholder of a competing company established under the civil law, a member of the governing bodies of a registered corporation, or a member of the governing bodies of any competing legal entity.

At present, Ms. Marta Ciepla serves in the following capacity at registered corporations: LiveChat Software SA – member of the Supervisory Board